

James Leonard Walters Jr

January 19, 1947 - April 30, 2015

Cemetery

Sunset Hills Memorial Park

AK,

Comments

“ My fondest memories of Jim are watching how tenderly and lovingly he treated his wife Carol. He so obviously treasured and adored her, Mike and I came away inspired to emulate more of this in our own relationship.

Tamara and Mike Reddy - May 14, 2015 at 03:07 AM

“ My favorite memory of Jim was when He and Carol were camping at Point Mugu. Stephanie & I met up with them on our way back from Morro Bay. We had the most relaxing weekend visiting with them, just the 4 of us. Jim made us feel like we were a part of their family that weekend. I will miss Jim terribly but know that he will be there with us at Point Mugu when we are there. Rest in peace my friend.

Rich Gault - May 06, 2015 at 12:10 AM

“ Jim - you were our first host at our very first rally and left a lasting impression on both Brian and I as well as our children. Your popcorn balls and welcome will be etched in their memories of camping forever. Brian was honored you chose to give him your SCCamper shirts you used to wear and wears them with pride. The kids want to know who will take your place at the Halloween Rally as the best Globetrotter there ever was! We were blessed to have known you and will miss you but are glad you are out of pain and at peace.

Until we meet again around the campfire -

Love and Peace - Brian, Kim, Caitlin, Patrick and Molly

Kim Cochran - May 05, 2015 at 03:47 PM

“ It was such a privilege to get to know Jim. He was always ready with a smile, a kind word, a helping hand. Spending time around the campfire laughing our heads silly will be precious memories forever. Until we meet again in heaven, here's to you, Jim!

Jane Steinmetz - May 05, 2015 at 02:41 PM

“ Wow, there are so many great memories, around the campfire, homework with Kara (ya, he saved her life that day...LOL) always lending me a hand with my trailer. His smile, his laugh, his stories. I'm so blessed to have had him in my life. I miss him dearly, and I take comfort in knowing he's in heaven and he's no longer in pain. We will be sitting around the campfire together again someday.

Deidre - May 05, 2015 at 11:44 AM

“ My favorite memory of him was going to the beach every year with your family! We always had such a wonderful time every year! Every trip was filled with excitement and adventures! I loved being apart of that amazing tradition. I am so grateful and blessed to have known him. :) love you guys so much! My heart grieves for you all, but I also have peace knowing he is with our Lord.
-Hannah Louise

Hannah Louise (McCoy) Cowan - May 04, 2015 at 11:59 PM

“ No man has ever had a greater friend than Jim. I feel so privileged and blessed to be part of his life. His absence leaves a giant hole in my heart.

There are a million stories that I could share about Jim but not one, on it's own, really describes the stature of the man. I would have to tell them all to begin to describe Jim. He ALWAYS had a kind word about anyone that he met. He made everyone feel comfortable in his presence. That's not an easy feat for a man of Jim's size. Look all all the definitions for the word "Love". That is where you will find the best understanding of who Jim was.

I know that Jim is more comfortable now and we are so thankful to God for the extra time that we had with him here and for the way that God took him. He is at peace and for that we can have no regret and can feel joy.

Wayne - May 05, 2015 at 03:49 PM

“ Jim you will be missed by many and you were loved by many - I will always remember your great smile, your laugh and your heart of gold. Please take care of our Nana, and say hi to Brian and Mike and tell them we love and miss them too! You were a gentle giant and truly a man of great character and bravery. Love Dave and the Maze family.

Dave Maze - May 05, 2015 at 08:01 PM