Margarito Fernandez, 70, of Apple Valley, CA left us on January 2nd, 2018 to reunite with his lifelong love Emma Fernandez. He was born March 8th, 1947 in Fort Worth, Texas where he lived a humble, hard working life with his parents Joe and Maria Fernandez. There he met and married the love of his life, Emma Diaz. In 1965 they moved to Southern California and started their family.

Margarito is survived by his four daughters: Judy, Margaret, Leslie and Esther; his six grandchildren: Renee, Richard, George, Elijah, Davion, and C.J.; and his first great grandchild, Mila; and Son-in-Laws: Anthony & Billy. He is also survived by his siblings Jesse, Sammy, Johnny and Camarina. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife Emma in 2007, and his brothers Joe, Jimmy and Raymond.

Margarito was a hardworking man and supported his family as a truck driver and then as a diesel mechanic, retiring in 2007 to take care of his health. He was a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan and loved taking family camping trips. He had two loves in his life, his wife Emma and the family they created together. He loved showing his support for everyone in his family and was always present to lend a helping hand. His deep unconditional love and pride in his family was evident to everyone that met him. He was an amazing father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend whose presence will always be missed.

“ My most sincerest and deepest condolences to the Fernandez girls and family. I hold Margo in such high regard. Even with my quirky ways he and Emma always took me in and considered me part of the family. I've always admired him and the love he held for Emma, it's a love one can only dream of having, a once in a lifetime. Margo was always a very gentle soul. Very quiet yet very on point with life's journeys. He was an amazing father one I wish I had. I'll always remember all the cars he bought Juddy, time after time- no matter the reasons why she needed another one... Watching him with the girls, with Emma, then later with the grand kids it was obvious the love he held for family. I pray that he is reunited with Emma and family who have gone before him. That he no longer hurt, that he no longer feel lonely. That the angels have received him with open arms and that God hold him in the palm of his hands. That he be in eternal peace. Love you Margo thank you for your love and friendship. Thank you for extending your family to me. For the Fernandez family I pray you find peace in knowing he is once reunited with Emma, Jimmy, and the Fernandez family in heaven. Corrie Alvarado xoxo

“ Thank you Tio Mage for all the greatest childhood memories. I will never forget the Christmas that "Santa" brought all of us kids a new bike to your house in Baldwin Park. Or the many weekends we spent at your house when my Abuela would go visit you and Emma .. I know over the years we all have grown and time between visits was rare, but you never changed and stayed the same sweet smiling Uncle we all know. I will be praying for all your babies left here. I know you are their world as they were yours!!! Rest in peace with your beautiful wife and brothers!!!

“ My deepest sympathies to the entire family. I will always remember how he and his wife Emma helped us out during my Father's illness and subsequent passing over 30 years ago, his Too Richard G Fernandez. They also helped us out during that first year after his passing until we moved away. RIP Mage. Until we meet again.
